Index to Volume 36

Atherton, Charles R., Ginny Terry Raymond and Lucinda L. Roff, The transition in Eastern Europe: implications for both East and West, 197

Bagley, Christopher, Chinese adoptees in Britain: a twenty-year follow-up of adjustment and social identity, 143

Barnea, Zipora and Meir Teichman Alcohol and drug abuse in Israel in the twenty-first century: implications for social work education, 357

Chung, Douglas K. and Alphonso W. Haynes, Confucian welfare philosophy and social change technology: an integrated approach for international social development, 37

Dlamini, Phiwase and Maria Juliá, South African women and the role of social work: wathint' abafazi wathint' imbokodo (provoke women and you've struck a rock), 341

Elliott, Doreen, Social work and social development towards an integrative model for social work practice, 21

Himle, David P., Srinika Jayaratne and Paul A. Thyness, The impact of setting on work-related stress and performance among Norwegian social workers, 229

Hirayama, Kasumi K., Hisashi Hirayama and Muammer Cetingok, Mental health promotion for South East Asian refugees in the USA, 119

Kilpatrick, Allie C. and Zhang Min-Jie, Family mediation in the United States and China: a relevant method in social work education for a vulnerable population, 75

Macarov, David, Self-reliance versus entitlement programmes, or, where should we place the deckchairs on the Titanic?, 131

Mok, Bong Ho, Integrative seminar: a cognitive approach to linking theory and practice in social work, 333

Monnickendam, Menachem and Howard Karger, Ideological purity versus pragmatic considerations in the development of social welfare in Israel, 241

Mosek, Atalia, Well-being and parental contact of foster children in Israel: a different situation from the USA?, 269

Nagpaul, Hans, Analysis of social work teaching material in India: need for indigenous foundations, 207

Ngai Sek-yum, Steven, Occupational stress and burnout among outreaching social workers in Hong Kong, 101

Sakadakis, Venes and Michael J. MacLean, The role of the social worker with ethnic elderly people in geriatric day hospitals, 47

Schindler, Ruben, Emigration and the black Jews of Ethiopia: dealing with bereavement and loss, 7

Segal, Uma A., Cross-cultural values, social work students and personality, 61

Sharma, Adarsh and Edward Allan Brawley, Childhood deprivation in the USA: cautionary notes for other countries, 315

Triegaardt, Jean D., Unemployment in South Africa: a social policy issue for social work, 293

van Wormer, Katherine, Child welfare practice in cultural context: Norway and the USA, 301

Vosler, Nancy R. and Sudha Nair, Families, children, poverty: education for social work practice at multiple systems levels, 159
Wong, Chack Kie, State-funded social work projects for social reform: reflections from community organizing in Hong Kong, 257